

SEATTLE FAIR IS NEARLY FINISHED

Interesting Letter Concerning Events of Closing Days of the Exposition.

SEATTLE DAY AN EVENT

BIG ATTENDANCE—SOME UTAH PEOPLE WHO ARE HERE.

(By Charlotte C. Stevenson, Woman Director Utah Building.)

Seattle, Sept. 18.—Seattle day at the exposition proved to be the big day of the season, the number of registered paid admissions reaching 117,000, where, on opening day, June 1, the attendance was 84,000. From the beginning of the great fair the loyal citizens of Seattle have worked together to make the day a success. There were all kinds of parades with numerous bands, throughout the day. Silk flags and souvenirs were given each visitor. Receptions and dances were held in the various buildings, and the grounds, which were magnificently decorated for the occasion, were thronged and packed from the opening hour in the morning until the hour of midnight closed the gala day.

There have been many special days marking the past week. Thursday California, as a state, dispensed her typical hospitality when the spacious state building was thrown open for all kinds of official and social functions, including the distribution of several carloads of fruit sent direct from the Golden State. Many of the members of the legislature were in attendance with hundreds of loyal citizens coming in special cars for the great occasion. The day closed with an elaborate reception and ball in the Washington state building.

Interesting and patriotic exercises were observed Friday at the exposition grounds, when the statue of William H. Seward was unveiled with imposing ceremonies.

It was both typical and fitting that the great statesman should be thus honored at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition, when it is remembered that to him belongs the honor of being the father of the Alaska purchase thirty-seven years ago. The ceremonies took place in front of the state of New York building, which is the replica of the mansion in which he lived.

In attendance were his son, General William H. Seward, now 70 years of age, and his grandson, also William H. Seward, in his forty-fifth year. The statue is over eight feet in height, and pronounced to be an admirable resemblance, and is the work of the sculptor, Robert E. Brooks of New York.

New England Day.

Spectacular exercises were held Saturday in connection with New England day. One hundred and two pilgrims in costume, members of the local New England club, landed from a real Mayflower at the foot of the Paystreak on Lake Washington. The vessel was a reproduction of the original taken from the model in the Smithsonian Institute. A salute of thirteen guns was fired before landing, and a procession was formed, marching to the Puritan Inn, where an old-fashioned dinner was served. Formal exercises were held in the afternoon in the auditorium, with a program of tableaux, music, speeches and recitations, winding up with a character ball in the evening.

A very delightful social function was given Monday at the New York building, when Mrs. Benjamin M. Wilcox, wife of Senator Wilcox of New York, entertained at an elaborate luncheon in honor of the secretary of the interior, when the invited guests were the members of the Hostesses' association at the A.-Y.-P. exposition.

Covers were laid for sixty-five, and the decorations and details were beautifully carried out. Brilliant crimson cactus dahlias, the exposition flower, and ferns were laid in graceful effect the length of the long tables set in the form of a letter U. An interesting feature of the occasion was the distribution of souvenir medallions made of virgin copper donated by the Utah commission by the hostesses of the Utah building to the members of the Hostesses' association.

It is the intention of this up-to-date and delightful social organization to give a large reception and dance in the Washington state building just before the close of the exposition.

This week our sister state, Idaho, comes to the front, when the state building will be the scene of elaborate entertaining. The chief executive of the state, Governor Brady, and staff, together with local bands and companies of cadets will be on hand, accompanied by a large number of private citizens from the Gem state, to show their loyalty to the state as well as the A.-Y.-P. exposition. Invitations are issued by the commission and hostesses for a formal reception and ball Thursday evening in the Washington state building.

The exercises will mark the last official functions of the exposition with the exception of the ceremonies in connection with Taffy day, when elaborate ceremonies will be held in honor of the nation's chief executive.

Palace of Fine Arts.

Even a partial review of the great fair and its many attractions would be considered incomplete without a mention of the magnificent steel and brick building known as the Palace of Fine Arts on the exposition grounds, one of the permanent buildings which will revert to the University of Washington to be used as a school of chemistry.

The building now houses so valuable a collection that the insurance is placed at $1,500,000.

While perhaps the collection is not as large as at previous expositions, it is wonderfully well selected, and includes many noted and choice paintings by the old masters and contemporaneous works brought from all parts of the world. Rembrandt, Botticelli, Corot, Turner, Millet, Sargent, Murrillo, Reynolds, Gainsborough, Lely, Rubens, Tintoretto, Salvator, Correggio, Van Dyck. There are corridors devoted to a fine display of sculpture.

An interesting display also, is the Curtis collection, where the walls of the room are hung with choice sketches taken from the portfolios accompanying that noted work of art by Edward S. Curtis, "The North American Indian," comprising twenty volumes, for which the modest sum of $3,500 is asked.

A room is filled with magnificent display of sterling silver, the central feature being the century vase, four feet and two inches in height, worth $30,000, manufactured by the Graham company to commemorate the completion of the first century of the republic of the United States of America. Here also is seen priceless bric-a-brac and a display of Tiffany stained glass and artistic high art electric lamps, bronze statuary, and many other valuable treasures of art.

It is needless to say that this palace of fine arts is thronged by artists and lovers of the beautiful, who spend days and hours, catalogue in hand, exploring its rich depths of artistic lore. An interesting feature in connection with the rare collection which has been loaned by public-spirited citizens throughout the country, is the fact that Salt Lake is represented by six valuable paintings loaned by M. H. Walker of Salt Lake. The pictures, which are the work of French artists, are hung in gallery H. They are:

"Fortune Teller," "Landscape," "The Lessons," "The Bathers," "Maternal Love," "Marine," and are among the most valuable and notable in the gallery.

Regrets.

Already there is a feeling of regret on all sides that the successful "Exposition Beautiful" will soon be a thing of the past. Every day farewells are said by hostesses and others who have been connected with the buildings during the summer. A feeling of sadness accompanies each look at the artistic harmonious buildings and exquisite grounds, knowing that within a few short weeks the streets will be deserted, the busy life and interesting bustle will be no more to be known, and only memories of the beautiful exposition city will be left to be added to others which will remain a joy forever.

HEARING ON RATE CASE ATTRACTS RAILROAD MEN

Salt Lake will be the mecca for scores of railroad men during the coming week. Already many reservations have been made by the Knickerbocker officials who are coming here to attend the meetings of the Interstate Commerce commission. All the big lines doing business in the west will be represented and local railroad men regard the meeting as one of the most important of the commission has ever held, because it is expected certain rate principles will be established which will affect the entire west.

HAS WORK IN RUSSIA.

Will Mines, a young man who has spent the largest portion of his life about smelters, and who of late has been connected with the Garfield smelter, left Murray yesterday for Russia, where he goes to manage a large smelting plant there. Mr. Mines was highly recommended for the position. He is the second Murray man to be offered a prominent position with smelters. Arthur Oberlander, another Murray boy, is now general manager of a plant in India.

DECLINES NOMINATION.

U. G. Miller, formerly bishop in the Protestant church at Murray, has declined the nomination of mayor on any of the two tickets in that city. A party of the political squad from both parties met with Mr. Miller last evening, and after placing the situation before him he refused to act for either party. He gave his reason for not accepting the nomination as ill health.

MUSIC FESTIVAL FOR NEXT SPRING

Manager Graham Gets Letters Giving Him Some Advice for Third Venture.

Despite the financial failure of Salt Lake's second and third annual music festival, given in April, 1908, and May, 1909, the Music Festival association is already making plans for the festival of next spring.

Manager Fred C. Graham, who is responsible for the annual music festival, has received letters from several festival associations of the east giving him some very valuable advice regarding the same.

ner in which their festivals are given. Mr. Graham will follow out the plans outlined by one of the most important festival associations in America, and which he thinks will apply also to this city. A most important feature of the annual festival is the finances, and by a few of the business men of the city to whom Mr. Graham's plans for the next festival have been given, support is promised. The new plan will undoubtedly receive popular approval.

Since the first festival Mr. Graham's desire has been that our own symphony orchestra be used, and also as many of our soloists as possible, but this has been impossible, due to the fact that the Chicago orchestra, who have been engaged for all the festivals, have had their own soloists. It is to be hoped that our own orchestra will be used for the coming festival. The matter will be presented to the orchestra management by the festival association management at an early date to see if arrangements can be made for their appearance at the festival.

MINING ENGINEER HAS VERY SERIOUS ACCIDENT

Leonard Cahoon, a well known mining engineer, met with a serious accident while engaged at his vocation at the U. S. smelter this week. Cahoon was supervising a job, when he stepped near the elevator shaft and in some unaccountable manner fell backward into the hole. While unconscious far below, a large ore bucket toppled from the cage and landed on his abdomen. He was hurried to the hospital, where it was later learned that he had suffered internal injuries besides a badly bruised body. His condition is still considered critical.

Although Morse perfected his electric telegraph in 1838, making his first public demonstration over half a mile of wire, several crude systems had been tried prior to 1860.

$3.50 Recipe Cures Weak Men—Free

Send Name and Address Today—You Can Have It Free and Be Strong and Vigorous.

I have in my possession a prescription for nervous debility, lack of vigor, weakened manhood, failing memory and lame back, brought on by excesses, unnatural drains, or the follies of youth, that has cured so many worn and nervous men right in their own homes—without any additional help or medicine—that I think every man who wishes to regain his manly power and virility, quickly and quietly, should have a copy. So I have determined to send a copy of the prescription free of charge, in a plain, ordinary, sealed envelope to any man who will write me for it.

This prescription comes from a physician who has made a special study of men, and I am convinced it is the surest, acting combination for the cure of deficient manhood and vigor failure ever put together. I think I owe it to my fellow men to send them a copy in confidence so that any man anywhere who is weak and discouraged with repeated failures may stop dragging himself with harmful patent medicines, secure what I believe is the quickest-acting, restorative, upbuilding, SPOT-TOUCHING remedy ever devised, and so cure himself at home quietly and quickly. Just drop me a line like this: Dr. A. E. Robinson, 423 Lock building, Detroit, Mich., and I will send you a copy of this prescription in a plain, ordinary envelope, free of charge. A great many doctors would charge $2.00 to $5.00 for merely writing out a prescription like this—but I send it entirely free.

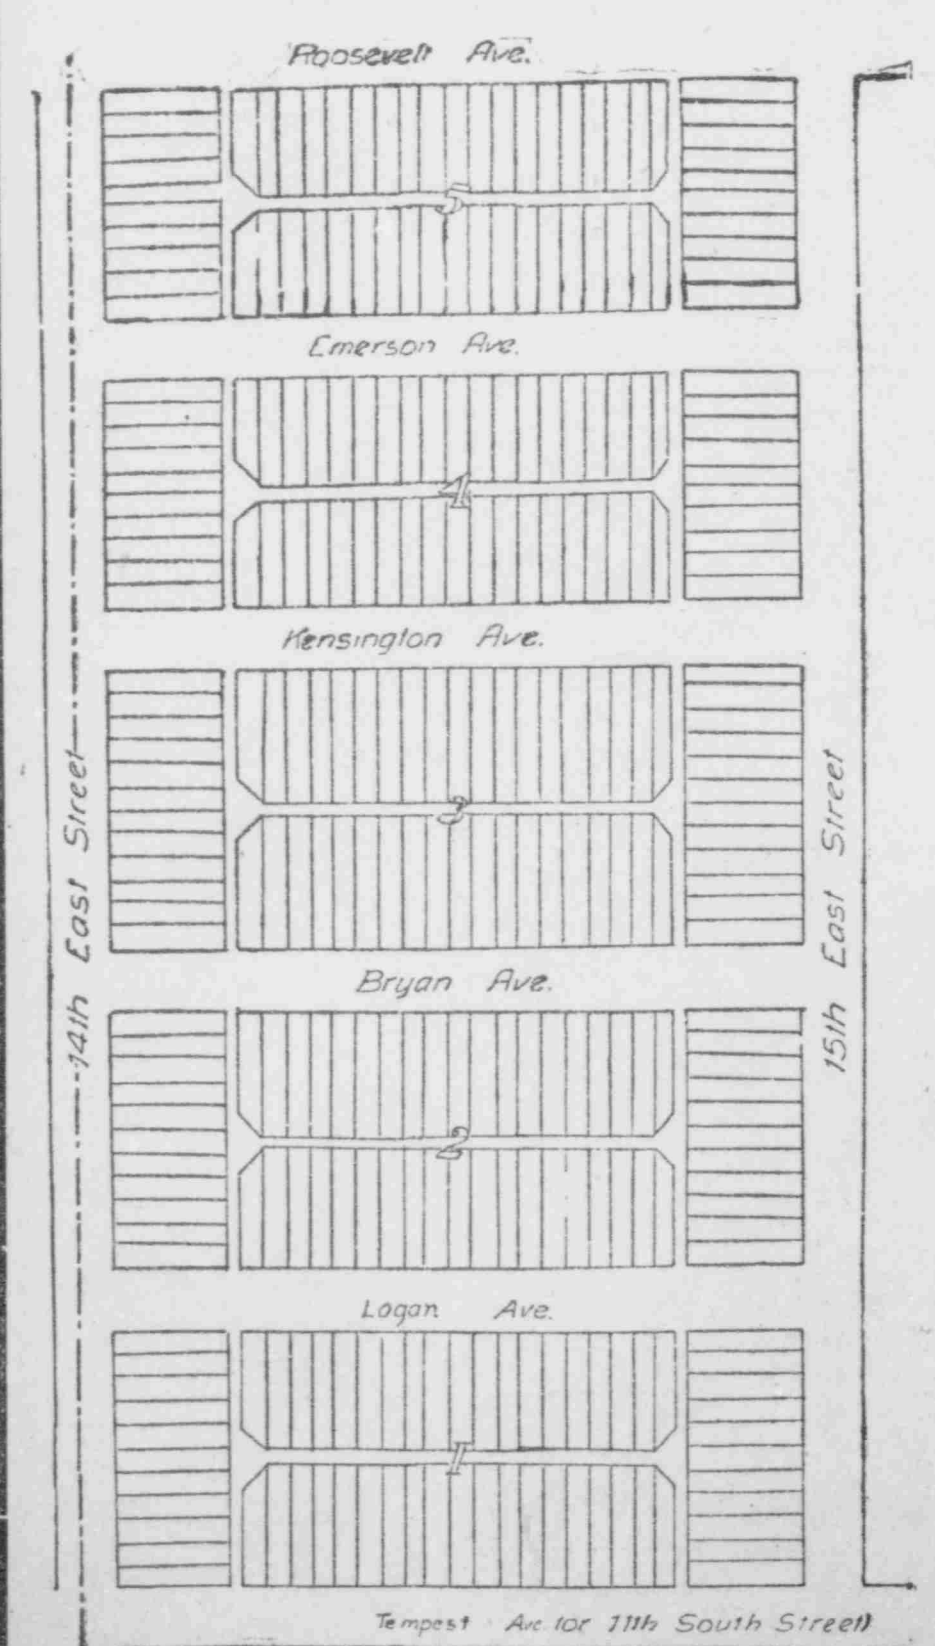

BABY'S SUMMER REMEDY FREE

In a family where the children are still young few mothers experience the joy of passing a summer without the children becoming sick. As a rule the ailment is a trivial one, though it looks very serious. The trouble usually lies in the stomach or bowels, due to a summer cold or to unfit food, water or fruit—the hot weather dangers. Before becoming alarmed, however, give the child a dose of DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPIN when you put it to bed. The direction sheet that comes with each bottle will tell you the quantity to give, according to the age, and as the remedy is pleasant to take and does not gripe, the child will not refuse it. By morning it will be much improved, and in another day entirely well. That is the experience of thousands of mothers. Give in confidence, biliousness, summer complaint, loss of appetite or sleep, sick headache, peevishness, etc. Do not give salts or purgative waters, tablets, pills or sleep-producing remedies that always contain narcotics, for these are unpleasant to take, gripe, and do only temporary good. DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPIN is a vegetable compound, thoroughly tested in American homes for many years. Women, children and old people are among its staunchest friends. Your druggist will sell you a bottle at the small price of 50 cents or $1.00.

Those who have never yet used DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPIN and would like to make a test of it before buying in the regular way of their druggist, can obtain a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE either for themselves or any member of their family by sending name and address to the doctor. The sample will be sent to your home free of charge. In this way you can find out what it will do without cost. Also if the case presents difficulties that doctors and other remedies seem unable to overcome, write a letter to Dr. Caldwell explaining how the person suffers and he will give you his best MEDICAL ADVICE, based on half a century of experience in stomach, liver and bowel diseases, without charge. Women who have children should send for doctor's advice on diet, hygiene, etc., in hot weather—a very important subject. The address is:

Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 518 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill.
